

Two weeks ago:

Pastor Todd Mullins reminded us that God can't use anything we've got until we let go of it. And then he asked, "What is Jesus asking you to surrender?"

Last weekend:

Senior Pastor Tom Mullins challenged us to be "champions of the faith," focusing our attention on the needs of others to truly accomplish great things for God. If you missed either of the past two weeks' messages, stop by the Welcome Center to pick up your free CDs, along with your One Life vision plan and Giving With Impact guide.

Today:

Teaching Pastor Dr. John C. Maxwell shares his One Life message, What's Love Got to Do With It? During the service, you'll receive a One Life prayer guide. And as you're leaving the sanctuary, don't forget to pick up your free CD featuring special music and message highlights!

STAY TUNED! Visit our website (goChristFellowship.com) and read Splash, our e-newsletter, to catch up with events churchwide!

This weekend, our children and students will be learning about people whose love caused them to make great sacrifices, allowing God to work in mighty ways.

Talk with your kids about what they think God may be asking them to sacrifice for His purposes, and share with them the lessons you've taken from this weekend's One Life message.

Christ Fellowship is built on a legacy of prayer and sacrifice. We began in a living room, moved to a schoolhouse and then to an old horse barn. That early band of believers took second mortgages on their homes, sold their possessions, and met six days a week to clear the land and raise our walls.

That's what One Life is about – obeying God and sacrificing for others, as others have sacrificed for us. As we sit in a big, beautiful sanctuary, we honor those who took the leap to transform a horse barn into God's house.

We've outgrown the living room days, the schoolhouse days and the horse barn days. But we've never outgrown God's call upon us to lay a foundation for the generations to come. This weekend, you'll receive your One Life prayer journal; we encourage you to spend the next week in prayer, listening for God's voice and seeking His will for your part in One Life.

Attention Parents:

This weekend, you can step inside the new Life Center and get a feel for the wonderful new facilities coming for God's Kids and Student Ministries. Tours will be offered from 4:30-5:30 p.m. Saturday and after both Sunday services. Check with your child's ministry area to register!

Champions Weekend!

It's almost here – the time to make your One Life pledges and bring your first offerings. This weekend and next, please bring your largest gifts possible; we are positioned to begin many projects as soon as the funds are available.

Reinforcing the Vision!

Initial offerings continue, with a message on giving from Dr. John C. Maxwell. Pray and ask God what you should commit to the vision of One Life.

Celebration Weekend!

Pastor Tom will share the news from the initial giving and launch each campus into its own projects.
